Michael Thurman, Georgia's Commissioner of Labor, is speaking at Our Church today. He is a bad brother. He has the potential to one day be Georgia's first black Governor. He is a friend of mine. favor just ain't fair. He really is going to bless everybody at First Jordan Grove Today!

Wow- that is great! Hope all is well! I am very sick and been out of school all last week. I can't go back until Tuesday. Say some prayers. I hate being away from the students.

On Sunday, Greater Dimensions was eight weeks old and we have been blessed with a 115 members so far. what a blessing to be able to teach insightful material and worship freely without the bondage of tradition. i did not realize how much i hated it until i was set free. Thank you God for the freedom to pursue the deeper things!!
